A major in English at UM-Dearborn focuses on the dynamic intersection of language, literature and society as well as the identities and communities shaped by this intersection. Majors in the English discipline have the opportunity to explore the relationships between reading and writing printed text by becoming familiar with the strategies that writers use to shape conceptions of truth.

The primary goal of the English discipline is to help students develop a sensitivity to the ways spoken and printed language frame how we conceive and discuss our identities throughout history. The UM-Dearborn English Faculty is committed to this goal by offering rigorous, comprehensive courses that contextualize language in terms of the various traditions and genres of English and American literature, the history of the English language and the critical skills necessary to craft effective expository and creative writing.

Acknowledging the unique perspective provided by studying English language and literature in a part of urban America that offers vibrant multi-cultural experiences, the UM-Dearborn English major also exposes students to the future of English language and literature in the context of a global community both in — and beyond — Detroit. Therefore, majors in the English discipline may expect to develop a close relationship to the social ramifications of the written word and its potential for incorporating both communities and individuals into a larger, more internationally aware reading and listening audience.

Humanities Internship Program

The Humanities Internship Program offers practical experience to students concentrating in English and other humanistic fields and those interested in communication or journalism. Students gain and demonstrate skills desired by employers, make important contacts, and explore a field of work before graduation. For more information on the Humanities Internship, see the Department Coordinator, 3028 CB, 313-583-6376, or inquire at the Department Office in 3011 CB, 313-593-5433.

Independent Study

Independent Study (ENGL 399) provides an opportunity for students to extend the work of existing courses or to explore areas not included in the current course offerings. Consult the Literature, Philosophy, and the Arts Department Guidelines for Independent Study, available in the Department Office, 3011 CB, 313-593-5433. To enroll in an independent research project, students must have a prior, written Independent Study Contract with the instructor and prior, written permission of the Department Chair. One to three credit hours available.

This course serves as the “gateway” to the major with enrollment limited to 20 students per section. ENGL 200 exposes students to the terms of English Studies, literary criticism and literary theory, knowledge essential to higher-level English courses.

Virtually all upper-level English courses require as prerequisites ENGL 200 and COMP 106 or equivalent. In addition, other prerequisites for a specific upper-level English course may be introduced by the instructor in the term in which the course is offered. Students are advised to consult the current Schedule of Classes for prerequisites each term. If a student has not satisfied the prerequisites of a course, the student may be enrolled by permission of the instructor, provided that there are other relevant qualifications.

Dearborn Discovery Core Requirement

The minimum passing grade for a Dearborn Discovery Core (DDC) course is 2.0. The minimum GPA for the program is 2.0. In addition, the DDC permits any approved course to satisfy up to three credit hours within three different categories. Please see the General Education Program: The Dearborn Discovery Core (http://catalog.umd.umich.edu/archives/2017-2018/undergraduate/general-information/general-education-program-dearborn-discovery-core) section for additional information.

Students are encouraged to take these surveys early in their careers so that they acquire an overview of literary history before taking more specialized upper-level courses. Students are required to take all four, but they can be taken at any time after ENGL 200 and are not prerequisites for other courses.

In addition to taking the four required survey courses listed above, students are required to complete at least six courses of upper-level ENGL electives. Students may wish to group some of these electives in the tracks listed below. Please note that students are not required to select a track for these remaining courses.

- British Literature and Culture

Cognates

English majors must also complete at least six credit hours of cognate courses which are to be selected from upper-level offerings in art history (ARTH), comparative literature (COML), communication (COMM), history (HIST) (excluding HIST 3085), humanities (HUM) (excluding HUM 485), journalism and screen studies (JASS), linguistics (LING), music history (MHSI) or philosophy (PHIL). Other courses that can be shown to be specifically complementary to the study of literature are sometimes approved by Petition as cognates. Cross listed comparative literature, communication, journalism and screen studies, linguistics, and humanities courses may be elected either for major or for cognate credit, but not for both.

Notes:

1. A maximum of 54 hrs. in ENGL may count in the 120 hrs. required for graduation.
2. At least 15 of the 30 upper level credit hours in English (ENGL) must be elected at UM-D.
3. All English majors must complete an English Diversity requirement course, a English Historical requirement course, and a English Research Intensive/Independent Study course. Upper level courses used to fulfill the above requirements may also be counted in the 18 hrs. required in English Electives for the major.

Elective "Tracks" in the English Curriculum

Students may choose to elect a “track” by taking at least 3 of their upper-level courses from one of the following four areas:

- British Literature and Culture
- American Literature and Culture
- Writing
- World English Language and Literature (WELL)

Electing a track is optional, but tracks give students the ability to focus their electives if they so desire. The courses for the four tracks are as follows. The following list is subject to change. Consult the current Schedule of Classes or contact the English Discipline representative for future additions to the tracks, including Topics courses offered on a semester basis.

It will approach the issue of adaption by examining the works of key directors, multiple films of a single play, silent films, foreign language adaptions, mass market and art house films, and films which deal with fictive or actual productions of Shakespeare's plays. Special emphasis will be placed on specific stage productions that are later adapted to films. In this course, students will explore a broad range of responses to and interpretations of Shakespeare's works. This class will stress the idea that each staging is an interpretation of the play, its point of view conditioned by the times, the medium, and the director's vision. (OC)
