

MEDIA PRODUCTION

The Media Production Certificate offers students a carefully tailored program in digital media practices including video production and audio production in the field and studio, broadcasting, and new media. The certificate provides technical training while building skills in multiple models of storytelling and creative expression, including narrative, documentary, and experimental forms. Courses in the program also link practical and applied work with theoretical concepts in film and media studies.

Certificate Requirements

Code	Title	Credit Hours
JASS 248	Storytelling Across Media	4
JASS 350	Introduction to Media Production	4
JASS 410	Directing & Editing Capstone	4
JASS 312	Media Performance & Studio Production	4
or JASS 305	Podcasting
or JASS 309	Video for Social Media
or JASS 315	Media Production for Metropolitan Community or JASS 345	Audio Production
or JASS 405	Storytelling, Experiments, and Play or JASS 406	Documentary & Photojournalism
or JASS 467	Script-Writing Workshop
Total Credit Hours		16

Notes

1. A minimum 3.0 GPA is required for courses in the certificate.
2. No pass/fail classes allowed in the certificate.
3. Maximum of 8 credits of transfer courses allowed.
4. Maximum of 12 credits may share with the Journalism and Media Production major.
5. Sharing with other minors/concentrations allowed.
6. Maximum of 8 credits may share with other certificates.