

ELEMENTARY CERTIFICATION TEACHING MAJOR - LEARNING DISABILITIES

As a learning disabilities major, you'll train to be an educator who works capably and compassionately with students who have intellectual, social or behavioral challenges. Throughout the program, you'll explore the newest methods for assisting learners with diverse needs, learn to use technology effectively in the 21st-century classroom, and complete multiple field experiences that put you side-by-side with students in local schools.

Plus, this bachelor's degree comes with a faculty recommendation for the Michigan Elementary Standard Certificate with the Learning Disabilities Endorsement.
