JASS 332  Storyboarding and Creating the Graphic Novel  3 Credit Hours
This course focuses on the creation of a storyboard from inception to a fully developed story. Students work on character, plot development, storyboarding, dialogue, drawing style, and layout planning, and are encouraged to introduce any cross-disciplinary techniques such as digital applications when appropriate. Lectures and readings will consider contemporary media. During the semester, students work on a variety of projects that will culminate in a fully realized storyboard or graphic novel. The core of the work will explore a range of traditional comic media as a requirement, and digital media as an optional supplement (OC).
Prerequisite(s): ART 202 or ART 206
Restriction(s):
Can enroll if Class is Freshman or Sophomore or Junior or Senior

JASS 333  Sports Reporting and Writing  3 Credit Hours
In this course, students not only learn how to write a sports story and report it across a variety of media, they also examine and write about relevant issues, from race and gender to sportsmanship and hero worship. In addition to assigned class readings, students read and report on one sports-related film and one book, chosen from a list of classics posted on CTools, and write a final paper in which they address an issue relevant to sports reporting. Local and national practitioners contribute their thoughts on a variety of subjects throughout the term.
Prerequisite(s): JASS 2015
Restriction(s):
Can enroll if Class is Freshman or Sophomore or Junior or Senior

JASS 334  Science and Environmental Journalism  3 Credit Hours
This course introduces the practice and theory of science and environmental journalism. Students report and write short science and environmental articles across a variety of media. They also examine the history, ethics and politics of environmental and science journalism and isolate a relevant issue as the focus of a research project, which will later generate a longer science/environment feature story. After instructor critique, students revise all work and submit a final ePortfolio. (W).
Prerequisite(s): JASS 2015
Restriction(s):
Can enroll if Class is Freshman or Sophomore or Junior or Senior

JASS 335  Multimedia and Music  3 Credit Hours
In this course, students will explore case studies of music created, performed, and distributed in combination with other media from the 1960s to the present. Multimedia is understood as any context in which several media are integrated, but particular focus will be paid to technological and creative innovations (such as video games, computers, and phones). The use of music will be considered in such media as film and television, multimedia performance and installation art, and international developments in multimedia production and distribution. (AY).

JASS 336  Film and Music  3 Credit Hours
In this course, students will be introduced to the varieties of music used in film from c. 1900 to the present. Topics covered include a basic introduction to the musical features of Western European dramatic music; the role of music in the early decades of the 20th century; the growth of film and musical sound in the "classic era" of Hollywood film; the use of music in specific genres such as film noir, science-fiction, epic, and musicals; and the use of popular song in film. (AY).

JASS 337  History of U.S. Broadcasting  3 Credit Hours
A survey of the history of broadcasting in the United States, from the development of radio at the turn of the 20th century to the rise of cable television in the late 20th century. The course focuses on the business, political and demographic factors guiding the various broadcast industries; the development and shifts of programming genres over time; and a wide look at the social impact of broadcasting in the country. (F).

JASS 338  Business/Automotive Reporting  3 Credit Hours
This course covers two inter-related areas: finance and automotive journalism. Students learn how to cover the economy and business community, focusing on areas such as Wall Street, economic indicators, stocks and bonds. Since the University of Michigan-Dearborn is located in the heart of the world automotive industry, the course also emphasizes the skills necessary for a career in automotive journalism, specifically how to read and report auto-related financial, environmental, safety, labor, finance and manufacturing documents. An introductory course in Economics is recommended.
Prerequisite(s): JASS 2015

JASS 345  Audio Production  3 Credit Hours

JASS 350  Digital Film & Television  3 Credit Hours
Digital Film & Television is a practical, applied course that emphasizes professional production skills in the context of the history, aesthetics and technology of the film/video arts. The purpose of the course is to provide students with a working knowledge and critical awareness of the medium through classroom instruction and studio training. Course counts toward minor in Communications. (YR).
Prerequisite(s): (ENGL 248 or HUM 248 or JASS 248 or FILM 248)

JASS 357  National Cinemas  3 Credit Hours
This course will introduce students to the national cinemas of a select country. In contrasting the evolution of cinema in the East, with the dominant genres and conventions of Hollywood, the course will enable students to critically examine non-Hollywood narratives; the interaction of various nationalist movements within the institution of cinema; and the ways in which world cinema has been inflected by various indigenous performance practices and other visual representations. (OC).
Prerequisite(s): HUM 240 or JASS 240 or FILM 240 or ENGL 248 or HUM 248 or JASS 248 or FILM 248

JASS 359  Narratives of Film and Lit  3 Credit Hours
Explores the narrative conventions of literary and filmic fictions in a cultural, historical and psycho-analytical context. The course goes beyond a discussion of the relative merits of novels and their respective film adaptations and examines the more complex interchanges between the two narrative forms; the ideological function of narrative in contemporary society; and the effect of the medium of a fictional text on the reader/viewer. (OC)
Prerequisite(s): ENGL 248 or HUM 248 or JASS 248 or FILM 248
JASS 380  History of American Journalism  3 Credit Hours
This course surveys the history of American journalism from the Colonial period to the present. JASS 381  Postwar European Cinema  3 Credit Hours
The course will concentrate on a series of films from various European countries with a focus on the socio-political issues, historical events and cultural preoccupations that have defined and also challenged European societies from WWII to the present. Zeroing in on the construction of European identities, the course will analyze and compare modes of narrating national, class, racial, sexual and social differences in different European nations. Themes such as memories of war and the Holocaust, new conflicts, class, immigration, women's rights, gender, and East-West relations will be addressed. The course will thus privilege a cinema that offers a "récit," a story. Particular attention will be given to discourses on otherness and on the ways in which film culture has reflected, reinforced, reshaped and, in some instances, contested Europe's past and current dominant ideologies, and identities. Readings by cultural historians and analysts will provide the context for an understanding of the films. The course will conclude with a discussion of the possible existence of a specific postwar European Cinema.
Restriction(s):
Can enroll if Class is Freshman or Sophomore or Junior or Senior

JASS 385  Black Cinema  3 Credit Hours
This course will examine selected films from African American and African film traditions in order to analyze how their cultural production is responsive to the conditions of social oppression, economic underdevelopment, and neo-colonialism. How film traditions define "Black aesthetics" will also be discussed. (AY).

JASS 387  Gender, Sex, Power Screen Studies  3 Credit Hours
This course examines representations of gender and sexuality across multiple screens, with a particular emphasis on Hollywood, independent, and non-Western cinema. In addition, the course explores intersections of gender with race, class, and ability to further investigate power structures in contemporary screen studies. The course will engage with a range of debates in film theory and women's and gender studies, and enable students to apply concepts and theories to specific media texts.
Prerequisite(s): HUM 240 or JASS 240 or ENGL 248 or HUM 248 or JASS 248 or FILM 240 or FILM 248 or WGST 275 or WGST 303 or ANTH 275 or ANTH 303 or PSYC 275 or PSYC 303 or SOC 275 or SOC 303 or WST 275 or HUM 275 or HUM 303

JASS 440  Theory of the Screen  3 Credit Hours
A study of the art, technology, language and theory of the screen arts through an analysis of their formalist elements and medium-specific codes. Film language, representations of art and reality, authorship, spectatorship and globalization are among the core concepts that will be examined. The course includes extensive online screenings of a variety of films encompassing a number of different forms and genres. (F)
Prerequisite(s): JASS 248 or ENGL 248 or HUM 248 or FILM 248

JASS 457  American Cinema  3 Credit Hours
This course will analyze how Hollywood as the nation's dream factory has manufactured fantasies and cultural myths that have constructed the image of American citizenship, both for Americans and non-Americans. It will establish the ideological function of Hollywood texts as providing unifying symbols for a fragmented society. (YR).
Prerequisite(s): ENGL 248 or HUM 248 or JASS 248 or FILM 248

JASS 467  Script-Writing Workshop  3 Credit Hours
This writing intensive course will train students to compose a film script, focusing on the substance, structure, and style of an original screenplay. The course will be conducted as a workshop in which students will first study classic scripts (and films based on these) of the film- school generation of directors, then model scenes and sequences of their own scripts on the principles of the above texts, and finally, write their own respective film stories in accordance with an appropriate narrative structure and design. (YR).
Prerequisite(s): JASS 310 or JASS 310 or ENGL 310 or JASS 310

JASS 477  Ethnographic Film  3 Credit Hours
This course will analyze ethnographic films as a medium for the construction of meaning in and across cultures. It will teach students to understand how the putatively "real" content of documentary film creates a mixture of fantasy, news and "science." Covering texts as varied as National Geographic photographic layouts, traditional ethnographic films made by anthropologists, and auto-ethnographies of cultural groups such as Native Americans and the Trobriand Islanders of Papua, New Guinea, the course will aim to deconstruct such oppositions as indigene vs. alien, us vs. them, and self vs. other. Students cannot receive credit for both FILM 477 and FILM 577. (AY)
Prerequisite(s): ENGL 248 or HUM 248 or JASS 248 or ANTH 101 or FILM 248

JASS 497  JASS Thesis  3 Credit Hours
A thesis project that is the culmination of the Journalism and Screen Studies major. Students choose the project area and write a thesis (40-50 pages) under the direction of a JASS faculty member. The thesis option is available only to students with substantial practical experience in the field of journalism or screen studies, and requires the approval of the JASS faculty. This course is available only to Junior/Senior students majoring in the JASS program.
Prerequisite(s): JASS 2015 and JASS 248 and JASS 310
Restriction(s):
Can enroll if Class is Junior or Senior
